PREFACE.

Six years have elapsed since the first volume of Devonshire Marriage Registers was issued and during those years the work has been practically at a standstill, in strange contrast to the adjoining counties of Cornwall, Somerset, and Dorset, where the Marriage Registers of 133, 107 and 58 parishes respectively have now been printed. This lack of progress in Devon has been due partly to the death of Mr. W. P. W. Phillimore to whose inception the entire Series is due and who edited the first volume, but chiefly to the poor support forthcoming from Devon men, in comparison with that accorded to the Series in other counties by those interested in their Records. Thus the first volume for Devonshire was issued at a substantial loss. Now that the work has been resumed, it is hoped that the support received will be more proportionate to the size and importance of the county, and so will enable the Devonshire Marriage Registers to be printed on a uniform plan and with such regularity of output as will render them safe from further loss and readily accessible to the student and genealogical searcher.

In the first volume the Marriages of seven parishes were given, viz., Countisbury, Ipplepen, Kingskerswell, Martinhoe, Trentishoe, Uffculme, and Werrington. In this volume are printed only the first seventy-three years of a single Register, but that, perhaps, the most important in Devon—Plymouth. Important by reason both of its size and because of the number of Marriages of people from distant places which the Registers of a busy sea-port invariably contain. It is hoped in subsequent volumes to continue this great Register until all the Marriages are printed down to the commencement of civil registration in July, 1837, and then to issue a General Index to the whole.

For permission to do this, the subscribers are indebted to the Rev. A. W. T. Perowne, Vicar of St. Andrews, and for the labour of making and checking the abstracts to Mr. A. Terry Satterford.

In consulting these printed Registers it must be remembered that prior to 1752 the year was reckoned according to ecclesiastical usage as beginning on the Feast of the Annunciation of the B.V.M. ("Lady Day"), 25th March, and not as in the historical year, on 1st January. Thus 25 Feb., 1621, is 25 Feb., 1622, according to our reckoning. This is sometimes expressed by a double date, thus, 25 Feb., 162 $\frac{1}{2}$, or 25 Feb., 1621-2.

It must be borne in mind that these abstracts are not "evidence" in a technical sense. For proving a Marriage in a Court of Law or registering a pedigree at the College of Arms, a certified copy of the entry should be obtained from the Incumbent in whose custody the original Register remains, and the statutory fee must be paid.

For other introductory matter and a detailed description of the Registers themselves the reader is referred to the head-note on pages 1—5.

Devon Parish Registers.

Marriages at St. Andrew's, Plymouth,

1581 to 1837.

NOTE.—The Marriages solemnized in the Parish of St. Andrew, the Mother-Church of the Town of Plymouth, are contained in some twenty-four volumes of various sizes. The earliest Register is a small volume of 100 parchment leaves, and only measures 12 ins. by 9 ins. It has been recently rebound, and although some of the entries are somewhat illegible, the actual state of preservation is, on the whole, remarkably good. The first volume contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 14th May, 1581, to the end of December, 1618, between which dates there is a complete record, except for a period of six months, viz. :—January, 1588, to June, 1589. During this period there seems to have been a lot of sickness in the town, for there is a large number of burials recorded under date of July and August, 1589.

This volume contains several interesting entries, inter alia, the following :—

Burials, 22 November, 1594.

“Sr. Martyne Forbisher, Knight, being wounded at the first battle against Breste by the Spanyerdes deceased at Plymouth the 22nd Novemb. whose entralls were here interred but his corpes were carried home to be Buried in London.”

Burials, 28 June, 1595.

“Peeter Stringer
William Fynnye
John Smythe
William Stronge } These 4 men were slayne by the breaking of a piece in the Queen's ship [“Heron”?]”

Burials, 2 June, 1608.

“Godfrey Mason
Thomas Goffe
John Bennett
Thomas Hodges } “Pirates, executed and buried.”

Volume II. is a larger book, measuring 14 ins. by 10½ ins., and contains 140 parchment leaves. It has been in recent years rebound, but the entries are, in parts, quite illegible, owing to damp, and are somewhat scattered about the Register; in fact, the general state of this volume indicates that the vicar for the greater part of the period covered by this book—Emanuel Hellier—was somewhat remiss in keeping a proper and regular record of entries.

This Register contains the Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from January, 1618 to April, 1654, and at the end of the Register appears a list of Publications of Contracts from 26 September, 1653, to 25 March, 1654.

At the commencement of Volume III., which is a large thin book containing only 45 parchment leaves, and measuring 14 ins. by 11 ins., is the following announcement:—

“According to an Act of Parliament
August the 24, 1653.

Here followeth the Register of Publicacion Marriages births and Burials of Andrews Parish Plymouth from the 29th September 1653; for the Keeping of which booke is apointed Henry Champlin chosen by the Parish and approved of by the Right Worshipll.

Richard Spurrell, Maior.”

This Register has been rebound, and the entries, although scattered, are very legible. At the beginning of the Register is a list of Publications of Contracts from 30 September, 1653, to 5 March, 1654, therefore repeating the Publications of Contracts entered at the end of Volume II. It will also be noticed that the entries of marriages at the end of Volume II. and the beginning of Volume III. overlap, although there are marriages recorded in the latter volume on dates which are covered by Volume II. which nevertheless do not appear in the earlier volume. In 1653, the commencement of Volume III., the first records of marriages at the sister church of Charles Parish, Plymouth, appear. Prior to this date St. Andrew's was the only church in the town of Plymouth, and hence from 1581 to 1653 the only place to search for records of marriages, etc., is in the Registers of this, the Mother-Church of the town.

Volume III. contains the following entries:—

Marriages. 20 October, 1653—25 December, 1674.

Baptisms and Burials. April, 1654—December, 1674.

Volume IV. is a large heavy Register, containing 167 parchment leaves, and measures 14½ ins. by 11½ ins. It has been recently rebound well, and the entries, excepting for a few leaves, are particularly legible. The period covered by this volume is:—

Marriages, Baptisms and Burials. 1 January, 1674—2 March, 1744.

At the beginning of the Register is the order of the Inner Star Chamber, dated 10 May, 1637, in the Petition of Aaron Wilson, vicar of Plymouth, against the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Plymouth regarding certain rights claimed in respect of the patronage of the church, etc. Want of space forbids a more detailed account of the Order of the Court.

Volume V. is the largest of the Registers, and measures $16\frac{1}{2}$ ins. by $14\frac{1}{2}$ ins., containing 183 parchment leaves. It appears by a note of the late vicar, that the volume was rebound in the year 1904, and that the entries of Marriages between March, 1754, and August, 1812, had better be sought in the 12 smaller volumes so dated—a most necessary piece of advice, as there is much information given in the Registers in Hardwicke's form which is not contained in the entries for the same period in the present volume.

This Volume contains the following entries:—

Baptisms. 28 March, 1745—30 September, 1798.

Burials. 25 March, 1745—30 September, 1798.

Marriages. 26 March, 1745—21 March, 1754, and the duplication of entries contained in the new series of Registers according to Lord Hardwicke's Act from 25 March, 1754, to 30 September, 1798.

These duplicate entries only consist of the names of contracting parties and are for the period 1754 to 1774 written in the same handwriting, which is of the type known as copper-plate.

The following twelve Registers, referred to in the note on Volume V., are all of the same length and breadth, viz.:— $14\frac{1}{2}$ ins. by 10 ins., and vary only in the number of pages and number of entries to the page. They are consecutively numbered 1 to 12, all being kept according to Lord Hardwicke's form, and the entries are perfectly legible throughout.

Volume VI. (numbered No. 1) contains the entries of Marriages from 25 March, 1754 to 1 June, 1760.

Volume VII. (numbered No. 2) contains Marriages from 2 June, 1760 to 2 December, 1763.

Volume VIII. (numbered No. 3) contains Marriages from 3 December, 1763 to 7 February, 1773.

Volume IX. (numbered No. 4) Marriages from 9 February, 1773 to 18 June, 1781.

Volume X. (numbered No. 5) is a somewhat bulkier volume, of which the last three pages are not written upon, and contains Marriages from 22 June, 1781 to 17 April, 1787.

Volume XI. (numbered No. 6) is also a bulkier volume, of which the last 42 pages are blank, and contain Marriages from 29 April, 1787 to 29 December, 1794.

- Volume XII. (numbered No. 7) contains Marriages from 5 January, 1795 to 29 June, 1798.
- Volume XIII. (numbered No. 8) contains Marriages from 1 July, 1798 to 17 August, 1801.
- Volume XIV. (numbered No. 9) contains Marriages from 17 August, 1801 to 1 July, 1804.
- Volume XV. (numbered No. 10) contains Marriages from 3 July, 1804 to 12 May, 1807.
- Volume XVI. (numbered No. 11) contains Marriages from 14 May, 1807 to 31 January, 1810.
- Volume XVII. (numbered No. 12) contains Marriages from 2 February, 1810 to 3 August, 1812.
- Volume XVIII. is of the same size as the preceding twelve volumes, and is bound in leather, which shows signs of wear. It contains the Marriages from 4 August, 1812 to 31 December, 1812, in Hardwicke's form. At the commencement of the Register are some 500 Banns, giving the dates on which they were published. For the sake of brevity, and thereby not diminishing the utility of this work, only such publications of banns are here given as relate to persons who do not appear to have been subsequently married in this parish.
- Volume XIX. is of an uniform size with the preceding series of Registers kept according to Hardwicke's Act, and is the first of the Registers conformable to the Act 52 Geo. III., cap. 146 (passed 28 July, 1812) and contains the Marriages from 1 January, 1813 to 31 August, 1815.
- Volume XX. is also according to the form laid down in Rose's Act, and contains the Marriages from 3 September, 1815 to 17 August, 1818.
- Volume XXI. contains the Marriages from 17 August, 1818 to 9 April, 1822.
- Volume XXII. is a very large volume containing 815 paper pages, and, like the Registers in Hardwicke's form and also the remainder in accordance with Rose's Act, is incorrectly numbered both as to numbers of pages and numbers of entries. This Volume contains the Marriages from 10 April, 1822 to 15 November, 1831.
- Volume XXIII. contains the Marriages from 15 November, 1831 to 18 July, 1836.
- Volume XXIV. is a large volume, only 73 pages of which, however, are written upon, and contains the Marriages from 24 July, 1836 to 27 June, 1837.
- The Registers contain many entries of general interest, and also apparently certain errors, which may require explanation.

Devonport, which was formerly known as Plymouth Dock, is first mentioned in the Marriage Registers, quâ Devonport, in the entry under date 7 May, 1827.

Pennycross, which is now a separate and distinct parish, is, throughout the period covered by the transcript, described as "of this parish," which it certainly was. Kelly's Directory for 1897, under the description of Pennycross and Weston Peverell, however, states that the Registers of this new parish begin as to Marriages in 1636, Baptisms 1634, and Burials 1635. The Vicar of the Parish however states that he has only Registers dating from 1867, although he has a "suspicion that such a book [prior to 1867] must exist, from enquiries of old parishioners." The Vicar of Plymouth however declares that all Marriages, Baptisms and Burials of inhabitants of the old tything of St. Pancras [now corruptly known as Pennycross] are contained in the Registers of the Parish Church of St. Andrew, Plymouth, which statement seems to be correct, as numerous entries occur in the Registers to support the opinion, and Pennycross ranked as a chapelry within the parish of St. Andrew within the jurisdiction of the Archdeaconry of Totnes.

Maker, which is a parish on the Cornish side of the river Tamar, is frequently referred to in the transcript as of "co. Devon." This is correct, as according to authorities the tything of Vaultershome, one of the two manors in the parish, was only annexed to Cornwall under the Acts 2 and 3 Will. IV., cap. 64, and 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 61.

The subscribers are indebted to the Rev. A. W. T. Perowne, M.A., Vicar of St. Andrew, Plymouth, and Rural Dean of the Three Towns, for very kindly giving the transcriber every facility for enabling the abstracts of these Marriages to be made, and also for his kind permission to print the same. The whole of these abstracts have been made by Mr. A. Terry Satterford.
